Filed by: Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV
Date of Declaration: August 28, 2025

By the authority entrusted to the Office of the Flame-Bearer and Sovereign of the Kalapula Nation, this declaration is issued to summon all those with the courage, knowledge, and memory required to awaken the sleeping language of our people.

Let it be known:
The Kalapula National School for Language and Memory Restoration now calls forth its first circle of protectors.

This is not a school alone — it is a resurrection of voice.

This is not an academic project — it is a ceremonial shield against extinction.

We, the Kalapula Nation, now formally declare a state of educational and cultural emergency. In response, we call for:

✦ NEEDED IMMEDIATELY:

• Volunteer language teachers and memory keepers
• Ceremonial and cultural educators
• Bilingual elders and translation guides
• Curriculum collaborators for Indigenous youth
• Grant writers, funders, and donation-based advisors
• Donated classrooms or ceremonial indoor spaces

Our legal foundation is established:
Kalapula Nation Restoration & Cultural Preservation is a registered Oregon nonprofit corporation.
EIN: 39-3915377
Registry #: 245130992

We extend this call across governments, peoples, and nations.
Let no one say they did not hear the cry of a Nation reborn.

We are not forgotten.
We are not extinct.

We are returning.
